the real deal

As reality's fantastical images are forever being outwitted to sell a clothing concept, the new reality is Milan-based Carol Christian. Carol is the opposite, reckoning that the only images that are all that are needed to produce a fashion line are the ones that are most realistic. Carol's new line, though modest, is a far cry from the high-fashion world of fashion. Carol, born in 1970, is a fashion designer and entrepreneur in fashion. Carol's new line is a far cry from the high-fashion world of fashion. Carol's new line is a far cry from the high-fashion world of fashion.
